

Program Joins Pleasure and Serious Themes

Relatives of Service Men are Honored at "Patriotic Night"

An evening of enjoyment with an underlying theme of seriousness was sponsored by Sequoit Masonic lodge, for the families of servicemen from this community and their friends Tuesday evening in Antioch Township High School gymnasium, with a capacity audience present.

Elroy Anderson, worshipful master of Sequoit lodge, introduced as master of ceremonies Vincent Gottschalk, who has toured with Bob Hope and other notables and whose genial informality contributed much to the success of the evening.

Selections by the string ensemble of the Chicago Woman's Symphony orchestra, under the leadership of Marguerite Conrad, violinist; solos by Lois Wallner, radio soprano star, and Charles Sears, tenor, who were also heard in duets, brought glamor to the program.

That silence can be not only golden but also funny, especially when done with gestures, was demonstrated by the acrobatic duo, Novak and Fay, who have abandoned their professional stage career for the duration in favor of work in a defense plant. They scored one of the leading hits of the evening.

Officer is Speaker
On a more serious plane were the talks.

"Time and distance factors should be taken into account by the home folks in making allowances for the adjustment of servicemen to civilian life," Lt. Col. Fred M. Distelhorst, executive officer at Fort Sheridan, told the gathering.

"Some of these men are seeing parts of the world that they have never even studied about in their geographies and are having adventures such as they have never even been read about in story books," he said. "Many of them have been overseas two or three years and some have been home very little since 1940, when the first selective service groups went into training. It has taken their officers as much as, two years to make good soldiers out of them, and you must allow them at least that much time for adjusting themselves in all respects to civilian life."

State Leader Attends
"Service, not secrecy, is the aim of the Masonic order," William Tinsley, deputy grand master of the grand lodge of Illinois, observed in a talk on the work of the order, with its affiliates, has been doing throughout the state in behalf of the service men.

Others who were introduced to the assembly included George B. Bartlett, village president of Antioch; and Fred B. Swanson, past potentate of Medinah temple, both of whom gave brief talks appropriate to the occasion; Charles Wightman of Grayslake, district deputy, and the officers of Sequoit lodge.

The sons of the Legion acted as ushers and escorts.

A dinner for the visitors was held in the Masonic temple at 6:30 o'clock. Members of the Eastern Star chapter under the chairmanship of Mrs. Homer La Plant prepared the dinner, which was served by the Rainbow Girls.

Victory Gardeners are Asked to Continue Work

"Without Victory Gardens, many people today would be living on inadequate diets," Eleanor F. Stewart, chairman of the Victory Garden committee of the Lake County War council, states, citing as authority studies made by nutrition committees.

"A recent survey by the Department of Agriculture indicated that 18½ million gardens were grown in 1944," she states. "The Wartime Victory Garden program for 1945 calls for as many or more than in 1944."

"There are three reasons:
1. To help win the war.
2. To get better vegetables.
3. To save money."

"Gardeners can obtain local advice from their local Victory Garden leaders, garden clubs, and committees; from state agricultural colleges and extension services, or from the Lake county war council chairman, room 101, county building, Waukegan."

"As you can see, I am overseas again," says Cpl. Morris Verkest. "This time my APO is 18655 New York. I hope that this time won't be as long as the last."

"Receiving the News every week and enjoying it very much. Sorry to hear the news of Sport Chinn."

"Since the last time I wrote you, I have been back to Belgium and as you can see, I am back in Germany again, so I am still getting around plenty," T/5 Robert M. Hunt comments.

"Went down to see Bob Strang about three weeks ago, and spent nearly the whole afternoon with him. He had the afternoon off, so we spent quite a while in the Red Cross. Sat around and talked about old times and everyone in Antioch. Then we (meaning Ed Simonsen and myself) took off to camp and ran across Jack Koppen. So we stopped in and really gave him a surprise. Went and saw his company commander and he let Jack come up with me overnight. Ed was on pass, so he left in a town. After talking the whole night, I found out that Jack had only been about six miles from us for three months. The funny part of the whole thing was that I had just finished a three-day pass from the same town he was in. Stayed at camp which was about six blocks from him."

"Have also seen Jim Nielsen, not too long ago. Just yesterday I was taking a shower (believe it or not, we do take showers) when a kid who looked awfully familiar to me said, 'Say aren't you from Antioch?' It was Tweed, from Lake Villa. So you can see how things go. It never rains but what it pours."

"Want to thank you again for the Antioch News. They have been coming through much faster since Christmas."

"Ask my mother to show that poem I sent her. Believe me, it is worth reading."

"I am now in India. It isn't too bad here. It's pretty hot, though," observes Cpl. Leo E. Buchta.

"I have been in the hospital for three weeks with pneumonia. Getting over it slow but sure."

"It's a strange country over here. They use camels and burros mostly to travel. The people here are dark complexioned, and there are several races of them. There are mostly Mohammedans and Hindus here. They aren't very clean. It's funny how they can live. They say it only takes two annas a day to keep them alive, which amounts to four cents in American money."

"Is there any way in which I can get George Sterbenz' address?"

RICHARD BOYER HELPS TAKE GERMAN PRISONERS

War Correspondent Richard G. Boyer of the Office of War Information, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan S. Boyer of Cedarcrest Acres, writes from Germany that he and three other correspondents recently took 30 German prisoners. Although the correspondents were unarmed, the Germans insisted upon surrendering to them, in the absence of any others in their vicinity to whom they could give themselves up.

Friday, April 20, is Proclaimed Arbor Day

Pointing out the importance of the woodlands of Illinois, from pioneer days onward, Governor Dwight H. Green proclaimed Friday, April 20, as Arbor Day, and requested that the occasion be observed by appropriate program and exercise in public schools throughout the state.

"Without our forests the early settlement of this region would not have been possible," the Governor's proclamation said. "From pioneer days down to the present time, the trees of Illinois have guarded our soils against erosion, have added beauty to our landscapes, and have been a valuable source of lumber and firewood."

In the same proclamation, the Governor designated Friday, Oct. 19, 1945, as Bird Day.

The State Division of Forestry expects to distribute more than two million forest tree seedlings and transplants to Illinois land owners this spring. An active demand for trees is decreasing the stock on hand, but seedlings of short leaf pine, Virginia pine, loblolly pine and red pine, osage orange, locust and ash are still available, as are red pine transplants. No more orders can be accepted after May 1. The trees are being used for reforestation, erosion control, and wildlife cover planting.

Ship 5,000 Pounds of Waste Paper from High School Monday

A load of waste paper weighing 5,000 pounds, salvaged by various organizations, was taken to Waukegan from Antioch Monday, C. L. Kutil, local salvage chairman, reports.

While the greater share of the paper was collected by Future Farmer members, the Grass Lake and Emmons schools and the Antioch Boy Scouts contributed toward making up the load.

At present the Antioch chapter, Future Farmers of America, is sponsoring a drive among its membership. Prizes are being offered to those bringing in the eight highest amounts of salvage.

Any person wishing to contribute paper, heavy iron, rags or old tires to the drive may telephone Chairman Kutil at Antioch 214 during school hours and arrangements can be made to pick up the salvage. Citizens may also bring the salvage to the storage barn at the rear of the high school if they wish.

"People are especially urged to save waste fat and turn it in at their local meat markets, where they will receive pay and red points in return," Kutil advises. "There is a great need for waste fats for industrial and war purposes at the present time."

The fishing season for various kinds of bass closed March 31 in the southern third of Illinois, and will not reopen until midnight, May 14. The central third of the state will have a closed season on bass from midnight, April 15, to midnight May 31, and the northern third of Illinois from April 30 to June 14.

A substantial increase in the amount of bass, following the closed season, is predicted by state conservation officials.

Acting at the request of the U. S. War Department, Governor Dwight H. Green designated Saturday, April 28, as grand clean-up day for the collection of paper, old clothing, tin cans, rags and grease throughout Illinois. A nation-wide collection of these materials is to be made on that date.

The Governor requested boy and girl scouts, school children, civic organizations, public officials and churches to join in the salvage drive.

An absent-minded Bristol subscriber has got us up a tree by sending in a notification to change his or her address to De Pere, Wis., and then forgetting to sign the card so we'd know whose address to change. Now we're trying to decide which of about six subscribers on Bristol Rt. 1 is THE ONE to change. Anybody able to tell us?

Have you noticed that gorgeous golden forsythia bush up on N. Main St. near North Ave.? It's mighty purty.

With a request that the United States flag be displayed on public buildings and at private homes, Governor Dwight H. Green proclaimed Friday, April 6, as Army Day throughout Illinois.

Grass Fires Lead in Causes for Fire Calls

A grass fire in the Cepek subdivision north of Antioch Sunday at 1:45 p. m. and three calls Saturday, one to the Soo line right-of-way at the end of Ida avenue at 3:30 a. m. for a grass fire caused by sparks from a locomotive; one to the Freeland farm in Newport township, tenanted by Louis Elfering, at 11 a. m. for a fire which resulted from a bonfire and caused damages of about $100 to the exterior of the residence, and a third for a grass fire along the Soo tracks at the northeast corner of Loon Lake at 1:30 p. m., kept life from becoming dull for the Antioch fire department during the weekend.

An oil burner that was not functioning properly brought a summons to the C. J. Heinzelman residence at Cross lake last Thursday at 11 a. m. This was the fourth call the department had received because of difficulties with the burner, Fire Chief L. R. Van Patten noted.

A roof fire caused by chimney sparks resulted at Fox river April 2 at 10:30 p. m.

Race Question Will Be Topic of Talk Sunday

Ethel Alpenfels of Chicago U. Will Speak in H. S. Auditorium

The Antioch Woman's club with the cooperation of the Grade and High School PTA, the American Legion and its Auxiliary, the Lion's club and the Business and Professional Women's club has arranged an interesting program to be held at the Antioch High School on Sunday, April 15th at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The program will be educational and entertaining. The educational feature will be a lecture on "The Scientific Approach to the Race Question" by Ethel Alpenfels of the Chicago university. "The race question is in the forefront of the vital questions to be solved before a lasting peace can be established. Returning soldiers are coming back with an entirely different slant on the question of race, so it is up to us on the home front to plus up our education and thinking on the subject," say sponsors of the program.

Rockefeller Research Worker

Miss Alpenfels has been a public school teacher for eight years, a volunteer social worker and a YWCA camp director. While studying at the University of Washington for her AB degree, she took anthropology as a snap course to make up lost credits and found herself an absorbing career. She was born in Denver, Colo., and attended Colorado State Teachers' college, the universities of California, Washington and Chicago. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, scholarship; Alpha Sigma Alpha, educational; Sigma Delta Epsilon, national scientific for women; the National Geographic society, American Anthropologist association and National Association of University Professors. Her research work was done among the Modoc Indians, Calif., with the Rockefeller Foundation fund, 1934, and among the Indians of British Columbia and Queen Charlotte Islands, Canada.

Margot McNamer Johnson of Batavia, Illinois, a former resident of Antioch, will present the musical portion of the program.

Mrs. Johnson, who is a well known concert and radio singer and is a soloist with the Chicago Little Symphony orchestra, will sing "Spring Song of the Robin Woman," "Wings of Night," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Love is the Wind."

The program is free and everyone is welcome, it is emphasized.

Service Men Take a Hand

In That Post-War Planning
With everyone back home indulging in wishful planning for the time "when he comes back," the men overseas have apparently decided that it is high time they took a hand in the game, too.

From the U. S. Marine corps come the following suggestions, assembled by Staff Sergeant Gerald D. Gordon, combat correspondent:

SOMEWHERE IN THE MARIANAS (Delayed)—Here is a list of "don'ts" for wives and prospective brides of GI's from this theatre of war.

Don't suggest taking a trip to the seashore. He's been looking at nothing but sand and seawater for the past two years or longer.

Don't say anything about going on a picnic. He's been living in tents, brushing away flies, insects and other vermin during most of his entire tour of duty.

Don't suggest going to a picture show—at least, for a while. The movies being the only form of recreation he had, the GI missed hardly any; many shows he saw two and three times.

On the cooking side—don't scramble his eggs. That's the way all dried eggs are cooked. Fix the eggs the way he likes them—usually, sunny-side up.

Don't mash the potatoes. That's usually the way dehydrated potatoes are served. Most men prefer French fries.

Probably not necessary to mention here—Don't serve canned luncheon meats. Serve as much fresh as possible—heavy on the steaks.

Don't throw cold water on any of his plans, such as making a swing of the hot spots, or even spending six months in a cabin in the mountains—away from everyone. Servicemen out here have been thinking and planning a long time about what to do when they get back, so DON'T, DON'T disappoint them.

Japan: Conquest in Reverse

The dramatic entrance of Russia into the Pacific picture has added to the protents of the course of events in that theater.

Already it has inspired speculation as to the application of a "squeeze play" against the Japanese.

Just as the German military leaders learned that the boasted super-highways of the Reich can convey traffic toward as well as away from Berlin, so the lands which to Japan seemed to be extending alluring invitations to conquest are now beginning to bear a threatening aspect.

To the Filipinos, to the Chinese and to many others whom the Japanese have sought to dominate, the slogan of the "Greater Asia Co-Prosperity Sphere" has acquired a curiously hollow ring.

Perhaps it is because the Melanesians, the Burmese, the Chinese, the Filipinos and all the other races in those lands feel that they are members of the human race first, and of other races secondarily.

Rather than widening the cleft between "east" and "west," the inhumanities attendant upon Japan's militarist program have seemed to have the effect of weaving a closer bond of humanity between the races that stood in the path of the Japanese conquest and the allies.

No one, reading how our American boys were aided by Papuans, Moros, Thibetans and members of many other diverse races, can ever feel that they feel that they will quite be strangers to us again.

To these people, as to us, the reversal of the tide of Nipponese conquest seems to have brought joy and vast relief.

Hitherto, Russia has been something of an enigmatic factor in the Pacific, despite "incidents" along the Manchurian border that have sometimes assumed the aspect of undeclared wars.

It will be interesting to see what the outcome of her latest declarations will be.

when it arrives, will be a comma, not a period, in the history of World War 2; a milestone, not an end marker in the journey toward victory; the catching of a second wind, not the finish of the race.

... It is right that we should rejoice, when that day comes, that the final day of victory is that much nearer; it is even more right that we should join in prayer for all who battle, labor, sacrifice, suffer or sustain injury or grief that the right may prevail.

... It is justifiable that we feel pride in the accomplishments of our country, the countries allied with us, and of all those brave individuals in many lands who have done their part that this victory might be won.

... It is also proper, at this time, that we give thought to the task before us, which, though diminished, is still gigantic.

... With renewed determination we can pledge ourselves individually and collectively to give whatever aid is within our power to bring about the final, eventual complete victory. Our purchases of war bonds, aid to the Red Cross, both in funds and in efforts, our continuance in essential jobs, our sharing of our still far from limited food supplies with the many who have had far less, our raising of Victory gardens and refraining from needless or extravagant purchases—all these may seem like small things, in themselves, but it is our continuance of all these "small things" that is needed to back the efforts of the men in the fighting fronts.

... When V-E day arrives, let us rejoice, take heart and, above all, LET US CARRY ON THE FIGHT WITH INCREASED VIGOR AND WITH A RENEWED DETERMINATION TO BRING IT TO A TRIUMPHANT CONCLUSION.

Ouch dept.—Looks like we slung the bull in the wrong direction. In a recent paypa we said Ravenglen had bought that thar $16,500 bull up to Waukesha. Now we learn it shoulda bin Rock River farms over to Byron, Ill., Lloyd Cummings' new stamping ground. Oh, well, what's a mere $16,500 item among friends, after seeing how lightly millions and billions have been tossed around thar last few yrs.?

oOo
It's about the right time of the year for us to issue our annual appeal to the general populace to restrain their dogs from trespassing on folks' Victory Gardens.

Besides being a kind gesture, it would be not only appreciated but patriotic to do so, on acct. of those Victory Gardens go far toward easing rationing, and the food situation in general.

oOo
Governor Dwight H. Green has signed seven appropriation bills passed by the 64th Illinois General Assembly. One of these, House Bill 49, appropriates $7,884,600 to the department of public welfare for new hospitals at Elgin, Kankakee and Jacksonville for war veterans and for setting up five downstate veterans' rehabilitation centers.

Hard winter driving does things to your car—attacks danger points that you never see. Take your steering knuckle, for example. Neglected, it can become a Booby Trap—throw your car out of control. Look out for wheel bearings, too. Lacking proper lubricant, they can lock your wheels—cause plenty of sudden grief. So play safe! Get a safety Shell lubrication this spring. In lubricating your car, there are 35 important danger points.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"When this war is all over, Judge, there will be some mighty interesting books written about it. Expect we'll learn a lot of things we didn't know before."

"Yes, Fred, when the record is finally written we'll realize what a gigantic operation this war really was and how important to final victory many factors really were."

"Take, for example, just one industry. Few people realize the importance of the great work done by the beverage distillers during the war. A high government official called it 'an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war.' He also said not so many months ago, while speaking about synthetic rubber, 'It is fair to regard the rubber manufactured to date as being almost solely the product of the beverage distilling industry.' That's the type of thing I have in mind... the way great American industries at home cooperated to help our brave fighting men abroad."

"I see what you mean, Judge... a complete history of American teamwork."

OTTO A. HANKE IS PROMOTED TO CORPORAL

A press release from headquarters of the 14th Training regiment, infantry replacement center, office of the Public Relations officer, Camp Fanning, Tex., states that Pfc. Otto A. Hanke, Antioch, has been promoted to the grade of corporal.

Pvt. Schaefer, who attended Antioch Township High school, entered the service Jan. 25, 1944.

Carl O. Gilbert, CM 1/c, sends greetings from Treasure Island, Calif., where he is on detached duty with the 12th Naval District transportation pool.

Second Lt. Alice E. Brya of the Army Nurses' corps writes—

"We, the nurses and patients of the 156th General hospital, wish to thank you for your generous gift. You will never know how much the wash cloths are appreciated by both nurses and patients.

"We have been very busy, due to the heavy fighting that is going on in the front lines, but are so happy to be doing our part.

"Our hospital is located on a very large estate. At the present time wild flowers are in full bloom.

There are many interesting spots in England and I am grateful for having had time to visit a few of them.

"A great deal could be told about your fighting men but it must wait until the war is over, but you all can be very proud of the American soldiers. They are doing a big job well and giving up a great deal for all of us.

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Antioch News for sending the paper. I enjoy reading it and it helps to bring home a bit closer."

T/Sgt. Ray Quedenfeld, who has been overseas for the past 9 or 10 months with a bomb squad, arrived here Wednesday to spend a 20-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Quedenfeld.

He expects to go from here to California.

The sermon topic announced by the Rev. John DeVries for the worship service at the Community church next Sunday at 11 o'clock is "Good in Nature."

The Boys and Girls league composed of young people 10 to 16 years of age will meet in the church at 6:30 o'clock next Sunday evening for a period of devotion and play. All children are welcome, it is announced.

The Ehrenheim and Edwin Kopple families have moved out from Chicago to their home on Cedar Lake. The home was partially destroyed by fire last summer and has been completely remodeled.

Mrs. Lulu Nelson left last Thursday to visit her sisters in Chattanooga, Nashville and St. Louis.

George Ford, Jr., has entered the army and is in training at Fort Sheridan. Mrs. Ford and their daughter are staying with Mrs. Ford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard while he is away.

Mrs. David Simpson left last Wednesday for Kansas to visit her mother and other relatives.

Don Cremin, who has been in St.

Therese hospital for an appendectomy is recovering nicely at his home.

The Sewing club enjoyed a luncheon at the Paul Avery, Jr., home last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nauta of Waukegan spent Monday with their daughter, Mrs. Lester Hamlin, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Barnstable have moved to their new home on Grand avenue near the Monaville road.

Lt. Donald Sherwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Sherwood, has been reported wounded in action in Germany.

Pfc. Ervin Barnstable, paratrooper, has been hospitalized because of illness, according to word received from New Guinea by relatives.

The local fire department has answered a number of calls during the past week—on Thursday to put out a roof fire at the Charles Madsen home when a spark ignited the shingles, on Sunday to fight a grass fire near the intersection of Grand avenue and Route 59 and early Monday morning to take care of a car on Route 59 when a short circuit started a fire.

Those things are PEACE Bonds, too!

BEFORE YOU cash a War Bond—wait. Spend a minute thinking of the days when there'll no longer be a War.

Chances are you've saved more in those bonds than you've ever saved in your life. And if you keep them till maturity, they'll be worth four dollars for every three you put in! What you're holding there can be a home of your own, some day. Or a start in your own business. College for your kids : : : And peace of mind for you. There's no better feeling than knowing the money's there if you really should need it.

But that's not all. Those bonds help guard this country against inflation. The money you spend unnecessarily helps bring on inflation. And that means—well, another depression. Bad times after the war instead of good ones! Bread lines instead of jobs.

So take it easy. That's your future you're holding.

Hang on to your bonds!

News of the Boys

—V—
Mrs. John F. Osborn forwards from Ludington, Mich., an item about her daughter, First Lt. Blanche V. Garwood, Army Air corps nurse, which appeared in the Ludington News.
Blanche, the daughter of Sam J. Garwood, was born at Channel Lake and is a niece of Mrs. Clara Willett. One of her letters gives an inkling of winter conditions in Paris:
"The first two nights we slept in a hotel without heat. We stayed in bed 15 hours to keep warm, until we had to get out for lunch.
"We got some wet wood and with a lot of coaxing kept the furnace here going."
Another letter describes living arrangements at the base—
"We live at the airdrome in three houses. The one we are in has a nice back and front yard with trees. The house is spacious—too much so for two people. Until the others get back it is rather lonesome. We have furniture, cots for beds, though army canvas ones. Our bed rolls are like down comforts and we really are too warm in them.
"We fly every day, so few nurses, and have medical personnel going out every day.
"I remained overnight just the night my old squadron was having its anniversary party for having left the States. I rode over in a jeep to join them.
"I like it here especially because we get our patients at the beginning of our flight when we are fresh."
Regarding a shopping adventure, she says, "Paris is beautiful, but upon shopping one just gazes at the beautiful lingerie and clothes. The hats are simply gorgeous but very extreme. Lots of material is used for everything. Designing is exquisite and accessories are beautiful. But one just gazes because the prices are extreme."

She tells of moving to a new location—
"I went over to see our chateau. It is a huge house but filthy. The Germans have no sanitation habits apparently. We hope to hire two French maids. We can't do it alone. Eleanor and I have a huge room with carpets, fireplace, draperies, a table, and wardrobe closets. The floor is carpeted and we have a private bath."
She also told of being made a first lieutenant and of assuming the duties of chief nurse while the regular chief nurse was in the hospital.
—V—
"Please change the address of Walter P. Simonsen on your mailing list," writes Mrs. Simonsen from Waukegan.
"There is no need to tell you how much he enjoys receiving the 'home town' paper, because I know you understand how the boys in the service appreciate your efforts in making it possible for them to keep in touch with their old friends and neighbors.
"When my husband was home on leave a short time ago, I asked him which of the numerous items I sent to him, or arranged to have sent him he enjoyed the most, and of course, the Antioch News was one of the first on the list."

ELECT HANSEN MAYOR

Clarence S. Hansen — candidate for mayor this coming village election, April 17, 1945.

He is the candidate with a platform

To the voters of Fox Lake and Ingleside

In presenting myself as candidate for mayor, it is to be expected that I explain who I am and what I stand for. It is my purpose to do this humbly, without any intent at self praise. I trust the citizens will consider my remarks in this light.

I am 40 years of age and the father of two boys. A business man of some success. My most recent and personal achievement is that I have been appointed authorized dealer for a large electrical appliance distributor, granting to me the territory of Fox Lake and Antioch.

Looking back some twenty odd years to the time I was employed by the late Mrs. Howard of the Mineola Hotel, I find there was very little for us young people to do in the way of entertainment and amusement in Fox Lake. Now after establishing a business in this town and watching the young people of to-day walking the streets, I see that the same situation confronts them. If elected mayor I shall make it my business to do considerable for these young citizens of tomorrow. I shall endeavor as mayor and member of the town board, to help the young people of this village to meet a world which is theirs—a world for which our best boys and girls are fighting, suffering and even dying on foreign shores.

Elect Clarence S. Hansen for Mayor on this platform

A clean, wholesome recreation center for our young people, under the direction of people of high character and at little or no expense to the taxpayers.

The chairman of each committee of the town board will be allowed to handle his committee's work as he thinks best.

The health officer will be given full responsibility for guarding the health of our citizens.

Co-operation with all clubs and organizations devoted to civic betterment.

Full co-operation with the village board and other elected village officials, because they are good men whom you have elected to perform the duties.

We shall initiate moves to have more sport events in the village, band concerts and other attractions such as a show to bring more people to Fox Lake.

We shall try to make Fox Lake a better town for our business establishments and for all our residents, and make earnest endeavor to attract industries to Fox Lake.

We shall always be the servant of the people, seeking to serve the citizens of Fox Lake.

"We have been very busy, due to the heavy fighting that is going on in the front lines, but are so happy to be doing our part.

"Our hospital is located on a very large estate. At the present time wild flowers are in full bloom.

There are many interesting spots in England and I am grateful for having had time to visit a few of them.

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Antioch News for sending the paper. I enjoy reading it and it helps to bring home a bit closer."

T/Sgt. Ray Quedenfeld, who has been overseas for the past 9 or 10 months with a bombsquadron, arrived here Wednesday to spend a 20-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Quedenfeld.
